⚠ The problem: Dimir Reanimator is 22.4% of the real Legacy field and your worst matchup (14.4% match win%). Combined with Lotus Combo (10.5% field, 9.9% match win%), roughly 33% of your opponents are playing decks that kill before your hate matters. Your path to Day 2 runs through the other 67%.

Sideboard Plans Per Matchup

vs Dimir Reanimator (22.4% of field)

IN: +2 Faerie Macabre, +1 Grafdigger's Cage, +1 Containment Priest

OUT: -2 Swords to Plowshares, -2 Voice of Victory

Key decisions:

- Flash Faerie Macabre in response to Entomb (not Animate Dead — exile before they can reanimate)
- Grafdigger's Cage T1 is better than T2 — gets under Dark Ritual hands
- Don't slow down your clock: still attack every turn
- Meddling Mage names: Animate Dead (EV 1.35) > Entomb (1.17) > Reanimate (1.35)
- ML insight: T1 Champion is +28.4% win probability vs this matchup — jam aggressively

vs Lotus Combo (10.5% of field)

IN: +2 Deafening Silence, +1 Grafdigger's Cage, +1 Containment Priest

OUT: -2 Swords to Plowshares, -2 Voice of Victory

Key decisions:

- Deafening Silence shuts their combo entirely (they need multiple spells per turn)
- Meddling Mage names: Hidden Strings (EV 1.46) — the untap spell that powers the engine
- ⚠️ Do NOT name Lotus Field — it's a land, not a spell, cannot be named
- Apply maximum pressure — their hate for Humans is minimal

vs Dimir Tempo (10.5% of field)

IN: +1 Path to Exile, +1 Sheltered by Ghosts

OUT: -1 Witch Enchanter, -1 Zack Fair

Key decisions:

- Meddling Mage names: Force of Will (EV 0.80) — makes all your threats uncounterable
- Cavern of Souls makes Force of Will irrelevant on your Humans — use it
- ML insight: being on draw is +6% vs Tempo (Daze punishes play-first)
- Mulligan cost here is -7% per mull — keep aggressive hands

vs Cephalid Breakfast (7.5% of field)

IN: +2 Faerie Macabre, +1 Grafdigger's Cage, +1 Containment Priest

OUT: -2 Swords to Plowshares, -2 Voice of Victory

Key decisions:

- Grafdigger's Cage stops the combo entirely (Narcomoeba can't trigger)
- Meddling Mage names: Cephalid Illusionist or Nomads en-Kor (either piece stops them)
- Their clock without the combo is slow — racing is viable if hate is answered

vs Eldrazi Stompy (6.4% of field)

IN: +2 Stony Silence, +1 Path to Exile

OUT: -2 Esper Sentinel, -1 Witch Enchanter

Key decisions:

- Stony Silence shuts Chalice of the Void (can't activate abilities)
- Path to Exile handles Thought-Knot Seer and Reality Smasher
- Meddling Mage names: Chalice of the Void (EV 2.0) — prevents locking you out on 1

vs Sneak And Show (5.4% of field)

IN: +1 Clarion Conqueror, +1 Path to Exile

OUT: -2 Voice of Victory

Key decisions:

- Clarion Conqueror prevents Show and Tell from putting permanents into play
- Meddling Mage names: Show and Tell (EV 1.75) — stops the primary engine
- Race hard — their clock without combo is slow (T5-6)

vs Mono Red Painter (5.0% of field)

IN: +2 Stony Silence, +1 Sanctifier en-Vec

OUT: -2 Swords to Plowshares, -1 Voice of Victory

Key decisions:

- Stony Silence prevents Grindstone activation (+2.5 turn clock shift)
 - Sanctifier en-Vec gives protection from red — all your creatures become unkillable
 - Meddling Mage names: Painter's Servant or Grindstone (either piece stops combo, tied EV 1.46)

Event Projections

Event	Players	Rounds	Day 2 Rate	Top 8 Rate	Expected Record
Your Locals	50	6	46.2%	27.2%	3-2
RPTQ	100	7	60.4%	17.4%	4-2
RC	300	9	62.8%	12.3%	5-3
PT	400	15	47.8%	8.2%	9-5

At your locals specifically: 27.2% Top 8 rate means roughly 1 in 4 events you're in the elimination rounds. That's strong given the real Legacy field composition.

ML Model Insights

The sim's gradient boosted model (trained on 165,000 game states) found patterns the rules can't:

What predicts wins more than anything else:

1. Opponent speed (64%) — their kill turn dominates all other factors
2. Which turn it is (12%) — early board states are more predictive than late ones
3. Total power on board (8%) — how much damage you can deal RIGHT NOW
4. Creatures in hand (6%) — future threats matter more than current board count
5. Damage dealt by T4 (2.8%) — milestone damage beats card identity
6. Damage dealt by T3 (2.3%) — getting early damage in is more predictive than which cards are in play

Key card marginal values (mid-game, contested state):

- T1 Champion vs Reanimator: +28.4% win probability — your best T1 play
- T1 Guide of Souls vs Reanimator: +9.9% — good but significantly worse
- Thalia T2 vs Dimir Tempo: +6.9% win probability vs Guide of Souls (+2.5%)

Mulligan policy by opponent (ML-derived):

- vs Dimir Tempo: Mulligan costs -7% per mull — keep aggressively
- vs Reanimator: Mulligan costs nearly nothing — hunt for T1 Champion
- vs Jeskai Control: Mulligan costs 0% — take any keepable hand

Key Triggers (Cheat Sheet)

Card	Key Rule
Adeline	Power = creature count. Attack → 1/1 Human token enters attacking
Guide of Souls	Every creature ETB → +1 life +1 energy. Attack → pay {E}{E}{E} for +2/+2 + flying
Kytheon	Flips to Gideon (4/4 indestructible) when HE attacks + 2 others
Voice of Victory	Mobilize 2 → 2 Warrior tokens. Tokens sacrifice at EOT
Coppercoat	+1/+0 to Humans during combat only

Mutavault

{1} → 2/2 creature, reverts at EOT

Bottom line: You're heavily favored vs every fair deck in the format. Your path to Top 8 is pairing away from the 33% combo field (Reanimator + Lotus) and punishing the 67% of opponents on fair strategies. The deck goldfishes at T4.35 and closes games before most opponents stabilize. Play aggressively, mull toward T1 action, and don't slow down for combo hate that won't matter in time.
